Location

Lindos village, at the heart of the cosmopolitan island of Rhodes, is a popular resort amongst holiday makers and day trippers alike. Being home to some of the most beautiful beaches on the Island along with the domineering presence of its ancient Acropolis, contributes heavily to the visiting numbers and the ongoing popularity of the resort. In the Village itself you will find that traditional tavernas, modern restaurants, bars, craft shops, jewellers and even night clubs all reside happily side by side. The diversity and ever welcoming Lindian culture is the reason that most visitors return year after year to the resort.

Named after the Greek word for a narrow street, Villa Sokaki is located centrally within the village of Lindos and just a minutes' walk from the lively bars and restaurants. Situated in one of the quieter side streets, a small table with chairs sits outside the Villa enabling you to watch the world go by on the winding and narrow streets that Lindos is so famous for.
